PRAYERS

Episcopal Churchwomen

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

United Thank Offering

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

For Those We Love

Almighty God, we entrust all who are dear to us to Thy never-failing care and love, for this life and the life to come, knowing that Thou art doing for them better things than we can desire or pray for; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Guidance

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favor, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Quiet Confidence

O God of peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be our strength: By the might of Thy Spirit lift us, we pray Thee, to Thy presence, where we may be still and know that Thou art God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer of Self-Dedication

Almighty and eternal God, so draw our hearts to Thee, so guide our minds, so fill our imaginations, so control our wills, that we may be wholly Thine, utterly dedicated unto Thee; and then use us, we pray Thee, as Thou wilt, and always to Thy glory and the welfare of Thy people; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

For the Good Use of Leisure

O God, in the course of this busy life, give us times of refreshment and peace; and grant that we may so use our leisure to rebuild our bodies and renew our minds, that our spirits may be opened to the goodness of Your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Chapel of the Cross

AN EPISCOPAL PARISH IN CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA

THE REV. PETER JAMES LEE, Rector
THE REV. ROBERT WM. DUNCAN, JR.
Associate Rector (Campus Ministry)
THE REV. DANIEL J. RIGGALL
Associate Rector (Parish Ministry)

304 E. FRANKLIN ST.
CHAPEL HILL, N. C. 27514
(919) 929-2193

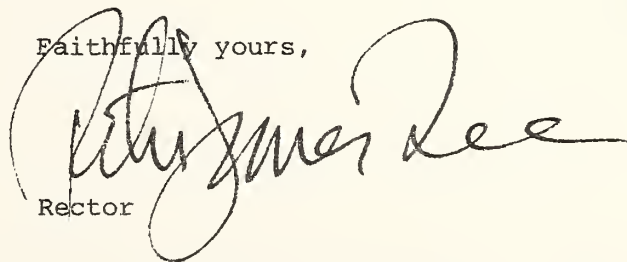

To the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Chapel of the Cross:

Next to the Vestry, the Episcopal Churchwomen is the oldest continuing body within the parish. One of its early names, the Women's Auxiliary, subtly suggested the secondary role expected of women. Women, after all, could not serve on Vestries in this diocese until the 1960's, and could not represent the diocese in General Convention until the 1970's, and could not be ordained to the priesthood until 1976.

History, though, is telescoped when it comes to the ECW of the Chapel of the Cross. There is nothing secondary about your leadership. You have been the strongest advocates of a sense of mission in our parish. You have been persuasive in the diocesan campaign to have its own conference center - and its opening this year demonstrated the effectiveness of your leadership. You remain vital, interested, compassionate and effective. Miriam Mullikin last year gave the parish a wonderful gift in her vision and imagination. Stephanie Willis, steady, serene and committed, will continue to expand and adapt the ministry of the ECW to the needs of mission.

This yearbook, its existence and its descriptions, is a sign of the leadership you provide the parish. May this year be one of joyous service for you in the mission of Christ's church.

Faithfully yours,

A large, fluid, handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to read "Peter James Lee". The signature is written over the typed name "Peter James Lee" and the title "Rector".

Volunteers answer the telephone on most days. They are well informed and ready to provide information. The clergy schedule their own appointments; if you would like to meet with one of them, call and leave your name and telephone number with the office. In case of an emergency, someone in the office will always know where clergy can be reached.

WORSHIP, SACRAMENT, AND PASTORAL CARE

In the tradition of The Book of Common Prayer, public worship is the center of parish life. Clergy and laity share in the leadership of public worship, a recognition that the liturgy is the common work of all the people. Sermons are preached at the two principal Sunday services (9:00 and 11:15 a.m.), and brief homilies at other celebrations of the Holy Eucharist. The Junior Choir (young people from third grade through high school) sings at 9:00 Sunday services, the Senior Choir (adults) at 11:15. Babysitting is provided for infants and preschoolers during these services; young children are always welcome to attend services, and it is assumed that all children over six will do so. All baptized persons, whether or not they have been confirmed in the Episcopal Church, are invited to receive communion.

SUNDAY SERVICES

- 7:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist
- 9:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist. Babysitting provided in nursery and playground for children under six until 12:30 p.m.
- 10:00 - 10:15 Preschool Chapel Service
- 10:20 - 11:00 Classes for preschool, elementary grades 1 - 6, junior and senior high, youth confirmands, university students, and adults meet in various classrooms.
- 11:15 a.m. Holy Eucharist on the first and third Sundays of each month, Morning Prayer on the second, fourth and fifth Sundays.
- 5:15 p.m. Evensong on the first and third Sundays of each month, Holy Eucharist on the second, fourth and fifth Sundays.

During Lent, the Holy Eucharist is also celebrated on Mondays and Fridays at 12:15 p.m. The service at 10 p.m. on Wednesdays is especially intended for University students.

Further information about services, and notices about special observances of feasts and other holy days appear regularly in the parish newsletter, Cross Roads.

HOLY COMMUNION is available to those who cannot come to church because of illness or other infirmities. The clergy welcome opportunities to celebrate the eucharist in homes, hospitals, or nursing homes. To make arrangements, call 929-2193.

THE CHAPEL IS OPEN for personal prayer and meditation from dawn until nearly mid-night every day. Copies of Forward Day By Day, a manual of daily Bible readings and devotions for personal use, are available in the tract room adjoining the chapel. THE INTERCESSION BOOK, for noting names of those for whom the congregation's prayers are desired, is also located in the tract room during the week, or on the table at the back of the church on Sunday mornings.

HOLY BAPTISM of children and adults is celebrated only in the context of public worship on Sundays at special baptismal festivals throughout the year. Candidates for baptism, or the parents and sponsors of young children, are asked to attend a short preparatory class. To arrange for a baptism, call 929-2193.

CONFIRMATION is the sacrament by which young people and adults become full communicant members of the Episcopal Church. Confirmation takes place at public services in the spring and fall of each year; provision is also made for persons already confirmed to be received from other Episcopal communions or to reaffirm their faith. Seventh graders meet as a class during the school year to prepare for confirmation in the spring. INQUIRERS' CLASSES are required for adult confirmation; the series of classes, led by the clergy, is offered twice annually and is open to any adult who wishes to explore the ideas and practices of the Christian Church as followed by Episcopalians. If you would like to be notified of the beginning of the next class, call the parish office.

WEDDINGS celebrated at the Chapel of the Cross require substantial premarital counseling; no wedding dates are set until couples meet with the clergy. More weddings are celebrated here than at any other parish in the Diocese of North Carolina. A brochure with complete information about weddings and receptions at the Chapel of the Cross is available in the parish office.

OTHER SACRAMENTAL RITES--such as the Reconciliation of a Penitent or Laying on of Hands for the sick--are available and are often appropriate and helpful in the strengthening of one's spiritual life. Speak to one of the clergy for more information.

PASTORAL CARE in the form of counseling and visitation is a major part of the work of the clergy. Priests are always available in emergencies, and expect to be notified of deaths, hospitalizations, and other personal crises. Appointments for counseling or spiritual direction may be made by speaking to one of the clergy or by calling the parish office. Pastoral care is available to anyone wishing it, regardless of church background.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD. Any baptized Christian may be buried from the church. A portion of the church grounds has been set aside for burial of the ashes of parishioners and their family members. Arrangements for services and disposition of remains are made in consultation with one of the clergy, who should be called as soon as possible after a death.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

People of all ages are invited to take part in studies to deepen and strengthen the roots of belief. Lay people, in consultation with the clergy, take major responsibility for planning and carrying out programs at all levels. The period from 10:20 to 11:00 a.m. on Sundays, when most classes take place, is between the two principal liturgies for a good reason: sharing in the words and acts of the church's faith is essential to Christian education.

Classes Offered 10:20 - 11:00 a.m. on Sundays

Pre-School Children learn that they are part of a loving community, and explore themes such as fear and trust, sharing and celebration, disobedience and forgiveness. Jesus and His ministry are discussed in simple terms. Anne Fields (967-5573) and Carol Chambers (489-8714) are the pre-school coordinators.

Elementary Grades 1-6 use the arts - especially drama, music and dance - as ways of interpreting the Bible and the experiences of daily life. Children are encouraged to take part in liturgy and parish life, and to grow in faith. The coordinator for the elementary grades is Fran Riggall (929-2193).

Junior and Senior High Classes encourage honest discussion as a way of facing moral issues and decisions. The seventh grade class is a year of preparation for confirmation in the spring. For further information about the junior high program, contact Dan Riggall (929-2193). The senior high class is coordinated by Gerry Unks (967-6604).

The University Class is led by the chaplain (Bob Duncan), and is intended for University students. It consists of Bible study and the examination of relevant Christian thinking. For further information, see the campus ministry brochure of Biddings and Bindings, the monthly campus newsletter.

The Adult Class is stimulating but informal and may be joined at any time. Leaders are clergy and lay people with expert knowledge in various fields. Class topics will be announced in the Cross Roads, the parish newsletter.
